

Attendees: Heidi Becker, Lisa Feyen

Recap – May 2018

- The baby bottle boomerang raised $2482; the committee voted for this year's proceeds to be forwarded to Gerard's Embrace
- The last senior luncheon was held in May and will commence again in Sept.
- We are considering the idea of a Catholic speaker that will focus on what families can expect with Hospice Care
- The annual Fortnight for Freedom will take place 6/21-7/4
- Monthly Healing Prayer services will continue after the 0800 mass
- Due to schedule conflicts, the committee will resume meetings in September

Current Events

Pro-Life

- Weekly prayer continues in front of Planned Parenthood in Delavan- there are usually 8-10 people from various churches/organizations in attendance
- The annual Life Chain will be held on Sun. Oct. 7 from 2-3 pm. Parking will be at the ET Bible Church. A notice will be included in the next bulletin.

Elderly

- The next Senior Luncheon will be held Sept. 19 at Noon in the Parish Office
- There are several volunteers that have been assisting elderly with transportation to grocery shop as well as dr. appts.

Local

- The next monthly Healing Prayer service is Sun. Sept. 16 after the 0800 mass
- This year's Fortnight for Freedom was very successful; all slots were filled

Social

- Jail ministry continues, alternating with St. Francis de Sales. A guard noted that there was a positive change in the attitudes of the inmates who participated.
- Heidi attended the Women of Christ meeting as a liaison on Aug. 20. She noted that the conference will be held Nov. 3 and unlike past years, will begin with mass at 0815. A "save the date" will be added to the bulletin after Fall Fest; a poster will be included closer to the date.

*The next meeting is scheduled for Monday, October 15th at 4 pm in the rectory.
